TO APPEAR HERE

Dr. John W. Studebaker, United States Commissioner of Education, is scheduled to speak here on Friday, Nov. 20 at the Junior Forum. He will make several other appearances here on the same day.

Journalists Will Meet In Compton Early Tomorrow

Editors of El Don were preparing today to attend the fall convention of the Southern California Junior College Press association at Compton Junior college tomorrow.

Those who are scheduled to attend are Bob Swanson, editor; Tay Riggs, news editor; George Bronner, chief copyreader; Franklin Guthrie, sports editor; Gerrie Griffith, feature editor; Frances Was, society editor, and Harvey Baker, advertising manager. John H. McCoy, director, will accompany the group.

Several issues of El Don have been sent to be judged among other college papers, for the best all-around paper. The paper also entered in competition for the best news story, sports story, feature story, and editorial.

Flint Is Speaker At Garden Grove

Calvin C. Flint, Dean of Men, spoke in Garden Grove this week at a meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon club at the home of Mrs. L. W. Schauer. The talk is one of a number that Mr. Flint has made before various Orange county groups this year.

Students At Cal Don't Like Swing Music And Loud Shirts

"Swing music and plaid shirts—they're taboo at 'Cal,'" announced Bob Speed, former jaysee student now attending the University of California. He came south last week-end to witness the California-U. S. C. game, and to spend a few hours with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Speed of 2315 Santiago street.

"Southerners and northerners are two of a kind, and easily distinguished from each other. The northerners draw the line at

Student Directory Issued

Will Appear On Campus Next Wednesday

Student directories will be issued Wednesday to holders of Associated Student tickets, it was announced today by Tay Riggs, editor.

The directory will contain the names and addresses of the 729 students, 35 faculty members, board of education members, class advisors, extra curricular advisors, officers of administration, and the city superintendent of schools. Extra curricular activities and their advisors will be listed alphabetically which is a new feature of the booklet, Riggs said.

This will be the sixth consecutive year that the directory has been printed. It is published under the supervision of the Press club, with Riggs as editor, and Emaline Alford and Fred Pickett as assistants. Walt Bandick was the editor of the student directory last year.

The college colors have been successfully worked into this year's edition. The cover is to be red with black type and will have the college seal on the front as did the student handbook.

It had been previously planned to have the directory ready for distribution today, but due to the Armistice Day holiday work was delayed on the publication, it was stated.

Delay Penny Fair To December 4

Originally scheduled for tomorrow night, the Penny Fair sponsored annually by the Los Gauchos service club has been postponed to Dec. 4, it was announced by President Paul Christ today. A definite location has not yet been chosen.

In past years the Men's and Women's lounges have been provided with radios and furnishings with the proceeds of the fair. This will be the third year the event has been held.

Admission to the fair will be five cents and to each booth, one cent. All men and women service clubs and the honor clubs will have a booth, with one dollar allowed each for construction.

What! No Prize Yells?

"Our verdict is that none of the yells submitted are worth prizes."

So spoke Yell Leader Charles McIntyre and assistants after considering the entries in El Don's $5 cash prize contest. As a result of the decision no prizes are being awarded today. Only five entries were submitted in the contest, it was stated.

El Don's offer still remains open if any student is capable of writing a yell the leaders deem worthy. The $5 will go to the first two people who can qualify for the $2.50 awards.

Drama Club Will Be Formed Here

With the casting of five one act plays nearing completion, Ernest Crozier Phillips, drama instructor, this week announced that he intends to form a drama club for his two classes in play production.

The club will be for the purpose of adding interest to the work on the five plays now being cast.

The drama club will present the one act plays in the Little Theater at the high school, later in the semester.

Plans For Local Date Bureau Made

Plans for a date bureau to be formed on the local campus within two weeks were disclosed today.

Although doubt reigned in all quarters, the executive board decided that the plan is feasible, and directed Franklin Guthrie, athletic commissioner, to write Jean Smith, head of the U. C. L. A. date bureau, for detailed information.

Just who the perpetrators of the scheme were remained in some doubt today. The executive board has taken the responsibility, however, of finding out just how practical the proposition is.

There was a date bureau on the campus two years ago under the direction of Stanley Wilson, but authorities said that it was "somewhat of a flop," and that it "became a joke."

Venus And Jupiter Rub Elbows In Southwest Tonight

Venus and Jupiter, the two brightest stars of the heavens, will approach within two degrees of each other early this evening, low in the southwestern sky.

The phenomenon, easily picked out because of the brightness of stars, occurs irregularly—possibly every four or five years, Mrs. Jennie L. Tessmann, local instructor, said this morning.

There will be another treat for star-gazers on Tuesday evening when the moon passes directly between Jupiter and the earth, creating a partial eclipse for nearly an hour, it was learned.

Agenda Scheduled For December 5

Forty student body officers of Southern California Junior colleges will meet here Saturday, Dec. 5, for an all-day discussion of major campus problems.

Vic Rowland will be chairman of the group, known as the Student Officers Coordination Council of Southern California Junior Colleges. Betty Lee will act as secretary.

Round table discussions will be conducted from 9 a. m. to noon and from 1:30 to 3 p. m. A luncheon will be served in one of the local cafes.

The last meeting was held at Fullerton Junior college.

Associate Editors For Post Named

Associate editors for the semester's issue of the Tavern Post will be Helen Griggs, Eloise Walker, William Backman, and Gordon Bishop, it was announced today by Editor Berger. Bishop will also serve as business manager, and Jack Gardner is to be art editor.

The Tavern Post is a publication of student contributions in prose and poetry which is published once each semester. It is sponsored by the Tavern Tattlers club under the direction of Thomas H. Glenn and Thomas E. Williams.

Jaysee Janitor Finds Variety In Articles Lost By Students

College professors aren't the only absent minded people in the world.

At least this is the opinion gained after interviews with jaysee janitors here this week. Wedding rings, coats, jackets, books, and even money are among the things recovered by these men in their daily work.

Notebooks, and textbooks are the most frequently "misplaced" articles, although pennies, surprising enough, are found in quite large numbers.

The locker rooms and lounges are places in which articles are most frequently found. Significant is the fact that students are not the only offenders. Occasionally an

Local Students Will Arrive In Pasadena

Six local junior college students and faculty members were scheduled to leave today for an overnight stay at Pasadena where they will attend the annual Associated Students conference.

Faculty members to represent Santa Ana are Mrs. Robert Northcross, Miss Zena Leck, and Miss Genevieve Humiston. Student representatives are Barbara Hallman, president of Women's Athletic association; Frances Was, president of A. W. S., and Louella Pierce, recently elected freshman delegate from A. W. S.

Over 300 are expected to attend the conclave at which all southern California junior colleges will be represented, Mrs. Northcross stated.

Tonight's dinner will be followed by a dance, sponsored by A. W. S. Both Miss Was and Miss Hallman are scheduled to speak on subjects relative to junior college activities at tomorrow morning's section meeting which all representatives will attend. A luncheon will also be given tomorrow by A. W. S.

Junior colleges in charge of this year's conference are Chaffey, Pasadena, Long Beach, and Pomona.

History Of County Told In 'Guide'

Orange county's history from 1889 to the present time has been compiled in "The American Guide" a history of the counties of the United States, and a copy will be ready for the local library soon, Lillian L. Dickson, librarian, disclosed today.

Seventeen new magazines will be subscribed to by the jaysee library at the beginning of next semester, Miss Dickson said.

Included in the list are: Journal of the American Medical Association, Library Journal, Literary Digest, Musical America, Nation's Business, Natural History, Reader's Digest, Stage, Travel, and Vogue. The library has subscribed to local, daily newspapers and several national newspapers.

Former Student Here Inspires Shower

Mrs. Hamilton Smith, the former Marjorie Palmer, was the inspiration Sunday for a shower given by her sister Jean and mother Mrs. Palmer.

The affair was held at high noon in the Lido Isle club house, the guests being served with clever box lunches. The luncheon was followed with the presentation of the shower gifts. The remainder of the afternoon was given over to bridge and conversation.

Mrs. Smith was a student here last year until her marriage in the middle of the year. She is a resident of Balboa Island.

Other local college women who attended the shower included Poly Angne, Evelyn Chapman, and Jean Reuter.

It's The Tops

Individuality is here. Gay, boyish, or feminine—each one of us has a part to play. We must dress in character, buy our clothes to fit our personality, our coloring, our mannerisms, our life. Our frocks must fit us.

One thing "this" girl must watch she must always have the proper dress for the occasion. The ultra-smart girl may go in for the "latest thing" more brazenly than the rest of us; but if she over does it, she is lost.

Good clothes are always subtle. A gown must have the proper sweep to it, yet have some trick distinction. The trick can be an odd color, a flower of ribbon, a bright scarf worn in some unusual way, but above all, have individuality.

It is not the money but the taste that one puts into clothes that counts. An inexpensive dress of the proper color and line will look smarter than the most costly gown of the wrong color and an unbecoming line.

Let's have individuality!

worst music we have ever heard," cried the northerners, while pleas of "we need more orchestras like this one" came from the southland representatives.

Their style of dancing is altogether different from ours down here. They stride out lengthily in much the same manner as Easterners do." Bob remarked that many of the Southern Californians refuse to attend dances because of the strange style employed.

As for plaid shirts Bob related this amusing tale.

"One day in gym a fellow was seen wearing a loud one. 'You must be from Balboa' a student from Los Angeles yelled to him." The astonished Angeleno wasn't far wrong—they gay shirted youth was a Southern Californian well acquainted with Balboa and its habits.

JAYSEE CASABA SQUAD REPORTS

With new recruits reporting daily, Coach Blanchard Beatty announced today that this year's basketball turnout should number well over 30 candidates.

Informal practices will continue to be held on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, Beatty stated. Sessions will also be held Wednesday evenings.

The basketball mentor submitted the following list of casaba possibilities, some of whom have reported already: Robert Buck, Lawrence Trickey, Charles McIntyre, Kenneth Nissley, Bob Browning, John Jennison, Bob Cunningham, "Babe" Marshall, James Haarstad, Dick Dyke, Chet Riley, Elmer Smith, George Griffith, and Jack West.

Kenneth de Grotenhus, Burns Drake, Griffith Montro, Ed Eastham, Harold Eastham, Erwin Youel, Bob Faul, Don Randall, Harry Stanley, Tay Riggs, James Barrett, Virgil Stevens, Lester Neel, Dick Tauber, Bill Greschner, Jack Yerington, and Elmer Meyer are also expected to try for the squad.

DISCLOSE CLUB TENNIS SQUADS

When tennis teams of the Junior Lions and Los Gauchos campus service clubs meet next week, the inter-club sport program will definitely swing into action, it was learned today.

Kenneth Nissley and Bill Keeton will form the Gauchos first two singles players and will meet Fred Pimental and Milford Dahl respectively of the Junior Lions.

The doubles match will find the Gauchos team composed of Norval Witt and Lawrence Trickey pitted against Paul Wolven and Dick Phillips. Points will be awarded on a five-point basis for each match. Competition will be run on two out of three sets.

No lettermen may compete for his club in the sport in which he has earned a jaysee letter, according to Franklin Guthrie, athletic commissioner, who is charge d'affaires of the sport program.

Bill Greschner and Warren Kennedy, Bachelor members, have been selected to represent their team in singles against the Buccaneers. Buccaneer players have as yet to be chosen. However, the two clubs will swing along with the two other service clubs next week.

The winners of these two pairing will meet for the title later with the losers in the two divisions meeting for the cellar position.

DON COACH IS CROSS-EXAMINED

Pennant Snatching Charged by Court

By FRANKLIN GUTHRIE
Sports Editor of El Don
Coach Cook Tried

The sinister case of the people vs. Coach Andrew Jackson (Bill) Cook, involving a charge of conspiracy to embezzle, steal, or kidnap the Eastern conference pennant and knowingly defraud certain groups of people and jaysee students in the cities of Riverside and Ontario as returned by a true bill dated Oct. 9 by the most extraordinary grand jury, has reached an impasse today.

While under a third-degree cross-examination by the prosecutor for the people, the said defendant stubbornly refused to comment on said allegations. When asked if there wasn't found in his possession a note to his trusted aides-de-camp ordering them to take, seize, pilfer, or snatch in any way possible the junior college pennant, the little general replied, "I never heard of such a thing."

He Won't Talk

Questioned about the discussed pennant and asked if he had not had previous claims to the flag in 1933, the Santa Ana mentor said, "I refuse to divulge any knowledge on my part of said topic until a later date."

Threatened with contempt by the judge, Mr. Cook cited his constitutional right to immunity from double jeopardy.

Chief Conspirator Summoned

At this stage of the proceedings, a new light was thrown on the subject when the prosecutor called to the stand to confront Mr. Cook, Bill Greschner, declared to be his right hand man on the football field.

Question: Mr. Cook, is it not true that this man has been an entrusted tool to your desire to carry away the conference gonfalon from such legal claimants in Riverside and Ontario (exhibits A and B)? Did you not say following the U. C. L. A. frosh contest, "If we can pull out a win against these mugs we ought to be able to do so against the Tigers and Panthers?"

He Forgets

Answer: My memory fails me. I forget.

Question: Mr. Cook, your brazenness appalls me. Never in the history of pennant-snatching has such a case as yours appeared before this court. You are the most stubborn and rascally individual in the annals of crime.

Answer: Thank you Mr. Prosecutor.

Question: Do you admit having sent several co-conspirators, namely Co-capt. Allen Titensor and John Lehnhardt, to deliberately go out onto the field and seize the games by force if it was found necessary and to humiliate several members of your league by severely chastizing them before thousands of fans?

Answer: I never wish to humiliate anyone.

Judge Steps In

Question: Evidently you are still unapologetic for your conduct to this court. Will you be prepared to answer any further charges, Nov. 27?

Answer: I will be glad to afford you that opportunity.

Court Convenes Later

Question: All right. I declare the present examination postponed until court convenes, Friday, Nov. 27. Let me warn you again, Mr. Cook, that if said pennant is found on your person on said date it will be a just proof of your guilt.

With the suspending of the hearing, Coach Cook was freed on deposit of $100,000 bond and he immediately departed for the vicinity of Riverside. Further developments will be forthcoming within the next 12 hours, authorities revealed.

DONS ON ROAD TO TIGER LAIR FOR ARC GAME

Bengals Out To Reverse Last Year's 26-19 Shellacking

By STUART CLARK

Either the cat will sharpen his claws or the Dons will add another pelt to their collection when the Riverside Bengals face the local grid aggregation tonight on the latter's stadium. Game time is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. coinciding with the new conference ruling.

Still embittered by caustic remarks hurled at them by Riverside sport scribes following last year's 26-19 Don victory, Coach Bill Cook will send out on the gridiron a team gunning for personal revenge and for a rampant Tiger.

Over 100 cars and 400 students are expected to make the trip tonight in the Santa Ana caravan to witness the Don-Bengal grid battle at Riverside. The cars are to pull out at 5:30 p. m. with several California highway patrolmen leading the procession to the inland city.

Title Holders

The Bengals are defending their Eastern conference and Southern California jaysee titles with one of the strongest teams in their history. The 7-2 loss at the hands of Citrus last week has served to make the team all the more anxious to trim the Dons.

Jesse Mortenson has a squad similar in many respects to Coach Cook's. Like Santa Ana they use the two team method. However, the second string is rushed into the fray only if the first team fails to click.

Weights Same

The Dons and Bengals will weigh in the line approximately 185 pounds to the man. The two backfields will both come in at a 170 pound average. Leading the Bengals are co-captains Gieseke and Mueda who will face both Don captains, Titensor and Lehnhardt.

Gieseke is the defensive star of the team at left end, while Mueda is quarterback and tied for second spot with Lehnhardt in the conference scoring.

Three Indians occupy first string berths on the Riverside team. Norman Holmes is a recruit from Haskell Institute and plays tackle where his 210 pounds are used to a great advantage. Vargas, a letterman from last year's champs will open at guard, weighing 190.

Bob Holmes, is the other Indian on the squad. He alternates with the brilliant Mueda at the safety position and is an excellent passer besides running the century in 9.6s.

COACH CALLAND MAY TALK HERE

Coach Leo Calland of San Diego State college may be the principal speaker at the annual football banquet scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 8, Vic Rowland, announced here today. A definite announcement is expected within the next week.

Coach Calland is head football coach at the southern institution which is well up in the race for the Southern California conference title.

Formerly head man at the University of Idaho, the well-known coach is in his first year at San Diego State. He received his basic training at the University of Southern California under the tutelage of Coach Howard Jones.

Next football year no less than six former Santa Ana Dons will be displaying their prowess at Mississippi State university. Augmenting Ray Hapes, Walt Hickman, and Dick Moore at the Southern institution will probably be John Lehnhardt, Roy Waer, and Ray Devine.

PANTHERS NEXT IN LINE

Chaffey's strong football team visits Santa Ana next Friday to meet the Dons in a game that will go a long way to decide the Eastern conference title this year. The league tussle was to have been played Oct. 16, but was set ahead due to adverse weather conditions.

The Panthers have faced tough opposition so far this year, winning two games and losing one. They have defeated Pomona and San Bernardino, but lost a grid encounter to the Citrus Owls.

The Dons will be seeking revenge for a surprise upset last year at the hands of the Panthers. Chaffey is in second spot in the conference standings and should they topple the Dons there would be a deadlock for first place.

No Defeats on Own Field

Tonight may be the night to break a four-year win streak Riverside Junior college has maintained on its sunken gridiron.

HORNETS CLASH WITH PANTHERS

Santa Ana and Riverside rate the spotlight this week as conference teams pick up their heels for the "home stretch."

Chaffey will be favored over Fullerton, which has failed to win a conference tilt in four starts. Citrus should conquer the San Bernardino Indians with little difficulty, although the Braves showed improvement in their 7-6 win over Fullerton two weeks ago.

Pomona's Red Raiders receive a conference bye this week, and have scheduled a game with the Loyola frosh.

CASEY LEADS SCORING PACK

Although held scoreless last week by the Dons, Pomona Jaysee's Johnny Casey continued to lead the pack in Eastern Conference scoring with 30 points. Co-captain John Lehnhardt, the Don's ace back, climbed into a tie for second with Howard Mueda of Riverside, as the result of tallying three of the Dons' four touchdowns against Pomona. Each has 19 points.

LAST WEEK'S STARS

Bill Greschner — fleet-footed quarterback who has proved to be one of Coach Bill Cook's main backfield threats. . . Makes a specialty of running other teams "ragged" . . . Played heads up ball against Pomona putting the ball in scoring position several times and personally accounting for a conversion. . . Appears to be headed for all-conference. . . Plays both end and quarterback positions equally well.

Ray Devine — has been a main factor in the Dons strong forward wall. . . One of the best tackles to ever wear a Santa Ana jersey. . . Succeeded in "messing up" many of the Red Raiders' line plunges. . . Played a bang-up game despite the fact he hadn't entirely recuperated satisfactorily for Co-capt. Allen Hails from Garden Grove.

Erwin Youel — substituted very satisfactorily for Co-capt. Allen Titensor last week. . . Former captain of Santa Ana high. . . Last of a long line of playing brothers.

A Successful Campaign

As far as El Don is concerned, the traffic signal campaign ended last week—a success.

Although it appears that signals are an impossibility, the city council has generously agreed to place a police officer on regular duty at the intersection.

Councilman Layton, Police Chief Howard, and others, favor the signal project. But there are three major objections:

Main street traffic is congested more at certain hours than at others.

The signals would be intermittent—idle through the summer months. It has been proved through surveys that signals not in operation are a traffic menace.

There is little cross traffic on Tenth street.

Then, too, the city would have to pay from $50 to $100 for a survey of traffic passing the intersection. That is impossible at the present time.

When the new Manchester boulevard is opened, much of the Main street traffic will be diverted to Flower and Broadway streets, relieving some of the congestion.

This will also help to lessen the daily dangers encountered at the college crossing.

El Don was interested in pushing the signal campaign in the hope of securing adequate protection for college students who are forced to use the local crossing.

Just how this would be done was unimportant as long as it was done. Since assurance has come that an officer will be placed on duty, we feel certain the traffic problem will be solved to the satisfaction of all concerned.

A skunk which had made its home in a drain pipe of Fiske hall on the campus of Wichita University vigorously aired its protest at being forcibly ejected. The janitor rejoices that the drain-pipe is on the outside of the building. Oh Min!

Learning to Loaf

President Roosevelt had a good idea when he conceived the NYA.

He has made it possible for students all over America to earn their own education.

Somewhere along the line trouble crept in. Those who supervise NYA jobs sympathize with the workers—let them loaf, say nothing about it to the local director. NYA in such cases is plain graft.

There are plenty of exemplary cases here. But when El Don criticised the majority of college relief workers, a hue and cry arose. Some thought Dean of Men Calvin C. Flint was being criticised.

It isn't Mr. Flint's fault that NYA workers make excellent loafers. He has repeatedly urged those directly in charge of work to see to it that real work is done.

Supervisors are falling down on the job.

Visit the campus some Saturday morning. Look at the crop of huskies—some of them football players—that do the work a little, stooped, 73-year-old man used to do by himself.

Watch them trek back and forth to the cafe across the street. Watch a bronzed young athlete take two hours to clean off a single window shade.

Come. Feast your eyes. Then you will know why young men would rather not expose themselves to the rigors of private employment.

Cleopatra Reigns As Queen Again In Class Survey

Page Cleopatra! She is still popular. Following a discussion concerning which famous man and woman they would most like to meet, members of two English classes voted on their choices. Cleopatra, with a total of 24 votes, led both men and women, while Queen Elizabeth who had 17 votes, was also ahead of the nearest masculine competitors. These two gentlemen were Abraham Lincoln and William Shakespeare, who tied with 12 votes each. However, a much greater number of men were named than women.

Besides those already mentioned, the men who were voted for are as follows: King Arthur, three; Richard the Lion Hearted, three; Julius Caesar, four; Lord Byron, two; and Robert Browning, Benjamin Franklin, Leonardo de Vinci, Napoleon, and Socrates, who also received two votes each.

The women who received more than one vote were: Joan of Arc, eight votes; Mary, Queen of Scots, three votes; Queen Victoria, seven votes; Elizabeth Browning, Jane Adams, and Mme. Currie, two votes each.

Among the group that were given one vote were widely contrasting characters.

Some of these: Alexander the Great and Houdini, Plato and Captain Kidd, Lord Melbourne and Adam Smith. Others were: Madame du Barry and Cicero, George Washington and Helen of Troy, Beethoven and Henry the Eighth, Aristotle and Marie Antionette, Jenny Lind and Disraeli, Poe and Launcelot.

VACATION AGAIN

Christmas is just 42 days distant, or just 25 more days of studying before a two weeks vacation.

So far this semester we have had 42 school days and eight week-ends.

Already half of the first semester is gone, and how much have we accomplished?

CLUBS

One hundred new club members have been officially accepted into jaycee's nine service clubs—47 men and 53 women.

Is this an honor? And what about the remaining majority?

Our own President stated in his last campaign speech—"vote for whomever you choose, no one can make you vote for their candidate."

Evidently local students do not believe in social independence. In a recent election one group of club pledges were sworn to vote for a given candidate. Unfortunately (?) they were not bound to secrecy, and the whole premeditated scheme was disclosed by a sincere apology. If this is what clubs stand for, what is their service.

FAKE

Coach Bill Cook pulled a good one just prior to the Pomona game. He posted an 8-inch photo of the powerful Casey, with formidable warnings on how the players should receive him. It worked—judging from the score. But afterwards someone discovered that the picture wasn't of Casey at all, but instead was some university star.

STUMPED

E. M. Nealley tried desperately to explain to psychology students that they don't think half as much as they think they do. When we debate about what tie to wear, or whom to ask, or whether to or not to—we aren't thinking—he stated—and we won't be until we bring together and study "general principles." But do you know the general?

IT'S A THRILL

Yesterday I received my first fan mail. It wasn't quite like the movie actresses get, but it proves some people read this column. Imagine two letters after one's first attempt!

Second Fatal Day of 1936 Superstitiousness Prevalent Today

By EVELYN HAMMETT

Here's what thirteen students with thirteen lettered names think about today's thirteen lettered distinction, FRIDAY THE 13TH: Fred A. Pinkston—I think it brings good luck.

Clarice Miller—I'm not superstitiousness—but I'm not going to walk under any ladders.

Murray M. Patton—I think they should declare a holiday.

Neil W. McDaniel—I think it's a lot of baloney.

Harold Eastham—Just another day to me.

Evelyn Chapman—I think it's a lot of hokey.

Randolph Lewis—The categorical alignment of the day will be conducive to a chemistry test which will be a "bear cat."

Bob Brodegaard—It's another banner day for our football team.

Dorine Hauptert—It doesn't bother me or anything.

Wilbur Nowotny—ugh...

Janice Goodman—Heh, heh, heh, —it's unlucky—I was married on that day. (These people don't know they're being quoted)

Alberta Becker—I really don't think there's anything to it.

And thus we see that there's them as is and them as ain't superstitious. But it also holds true that many of them as ain't—or shouldn't be—IS. Take for example the sturdy pioneers who planned this fair city of ours. When they arranged the streets they just plain left out good old 13, and in its place put Washington—and here's betting they weren't making that interruption just to take off their raccoon caps to our first president.

Did you ever try to find room 13 in a hotel? Well, don't unless you just wanted to ride on the elevator anyway. Hotel owners realize that most people just won't sleep under the unlucky omen. And last but not least, consider the thirteen dangerous letters which affect every student in Santa Ana Junior college—TENTH AND MAIN.

Short Short Story

She found them almost everywhere. She had to search all over the school. She hunted in the rooms. She looked for them in the halls. She asked numerous people to give them to her, and begged them from others. She worked for days to get them. Upstairs and down, in buildings and on the street, she stopped people to get them. She labored without ceasing until she had 25 names. Then she broke her egg.

Bughouse Fables

"Landon will be overwhelmingly elected and I'll stake my reputation as a prophet on that."—William Randolph Hearst.

"Thousands upon thousands of persons who have registered Democrats... are going to vote for Landon."—Los Angeles Times.

By ROGER SHIVELEY

Do you have your lucky rabbit's foot with you today?

Why? Because today's the 13th day of the month, and it also happens to be on Friday, which is very bad indeed.

The most widespread superstition in relation to days and numbers is when the 13th day of the month falls on Friday.

The number 13 is considered the unluckiest number we have. Hotels, street-cars, streets, and houses are always prone to omit such a fabulous figure, but in the days of the month it is impossible for us to omit it. So, we have to live through it, which usually isn't so bad, until it happens to fall on Friday.

We laugh at someone who refuses to walk beneath a ladder or cross a road after a funeral, but we usually watch our step on such an unlucky day as this.

Superstition seems an odd thing to believe in, but who doesn't have some sign or omen that they think has a meaning.

The girls in Germany are in the habit of placing their shoes at right angles to each other, hoping by this means to bring about a visit from their sweethearts.

In many places clubs have been started which are termed the '13' club or the 'Lucky' Club, or some such name. In these clubs the members meet on the thirteenth of each month. As they enter the club room, they walk under a ladder, open an umbrella and spill salt, all in defiance of the curse of superstition.

No matter whether you are superstitious or not, it pays to be careful at 1 p. m. (which is 13 o'clock), to not stumble upstairs, or get out of bed with your left foot first, or to sneeze three times before breakfast. If you have gotten by these dangerous periods on 'Friday the 13th,' you will stand a much better chance of living to a ripe old age.
